We in reality are the steps to a better tomorrow and a brighter future. We strive for independence to find ourselves in the world. With the knowledge we receive we may put forth an effort for good leadership among the people.

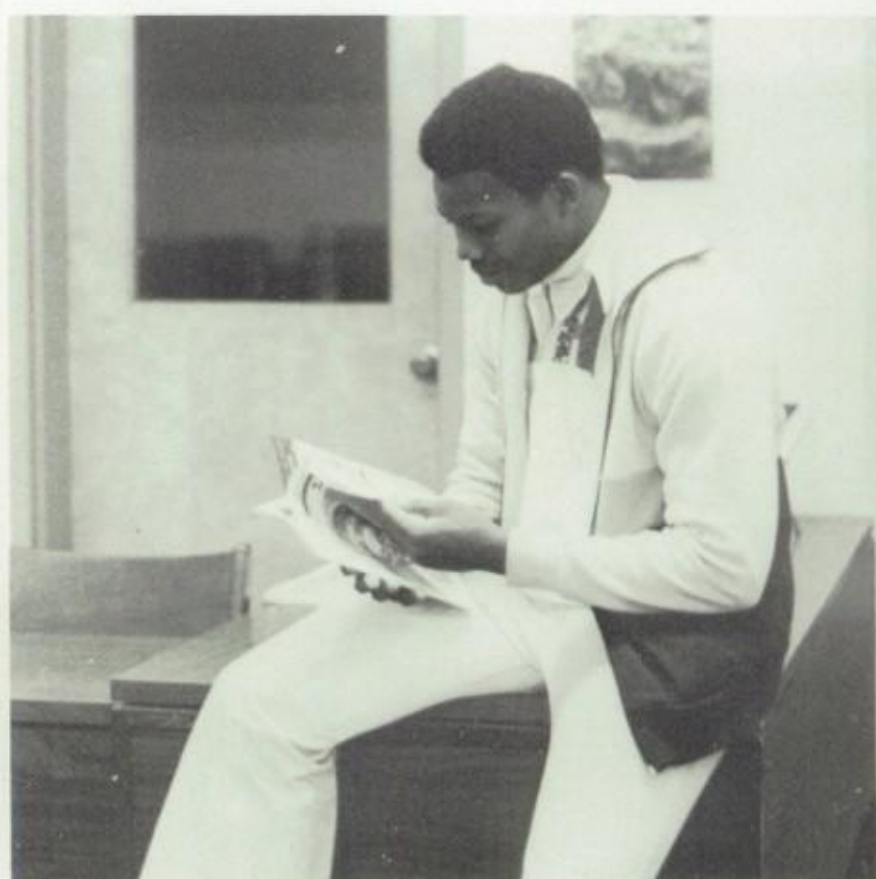

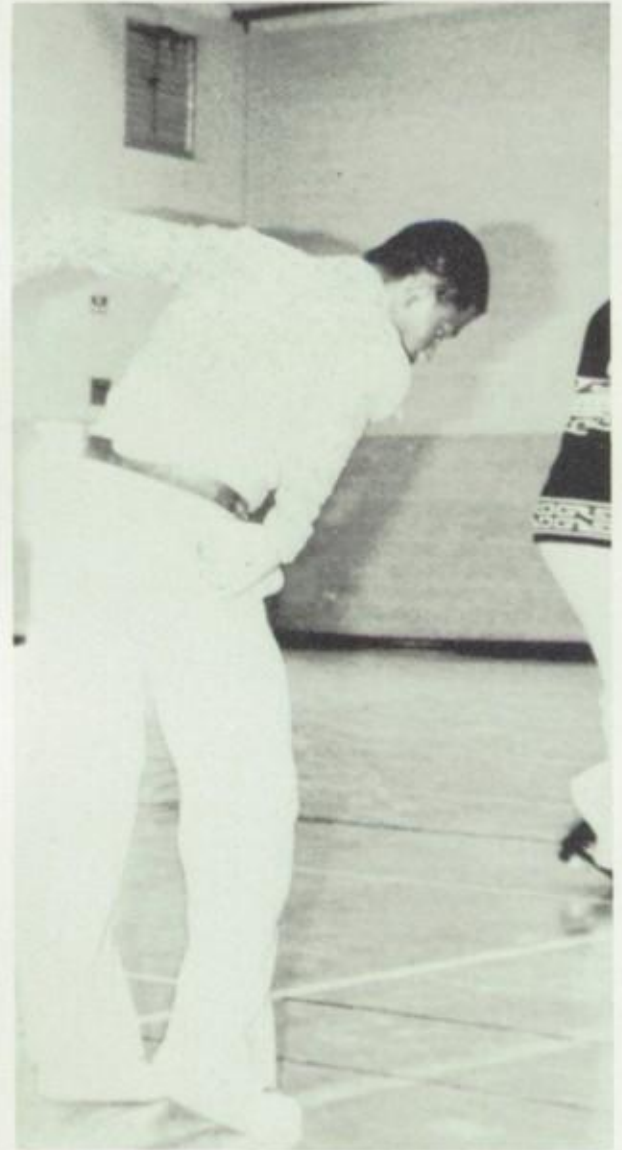

Our needs are essential.
Our wants are satisfying. We live with what we have and learn from what is taught to us. We owe credit to those who surround us for helping us reach our goals and ambitions.

As we open the doors of Ninety Six High, we unlock the key to the world. To us the world has a new viewpoint. Part of it may be rough, but as the class of 1978 ventures on, they leave behind memories . . . happiness, sadness, anger, or contentment. For their inspiration, loyalty, and trust towards Ninety Six High School, we the Starlighter Staff dedicate this edition of the Starlighter to the graduating class of 1978.
